Honourable Union Minister of State, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship Shri Rajeev Chandrashekhkar has visited RDSDE Kerala & NSTI(W) Trivandrum on 13.11.2021 AN. Shri B V S Sesa Chari, ISDS, Regional Director, Kerala, Smt R. Eswari, ISDS, Deputy Director, Principal and Shri P.G Rajendran, ISDS, Deputy Director Head of Office along with Officers, Staff and trainees has hearty received and welcomed him with traditional customs such as Thallpolli and lighting of Lamp.

Hon'ble Minister interacted with officers and reviewed various programs and schemes such as CTS, CITS, ATS, STRIVE and JSS, presented by Regional Director. He has asked RDSDE, Kerala to take a lead and play a vital role in District Skill Committee (DSC). As per him, DSC should identify skill gaps and come up with skilling, reskilling and up skilling programs catering the local need. For promoting JSS he sought the possibility of simplification and decentralization of JSS Monitoring system

Further Hon'ble MoS reviewed various courses offered at NSTI(W). He has provided valuable suggestions to improve the existing training eco system. Considering the needs of women trainees, he emphasized on provision of continuing training of dropped out trainees, empowering women trainees. He asked officials to align existing new age courses based on demand and capacity utilization, he suggested to incorporate more women specific courses based on local demand.

Hon'ble MoS visited practical labs and interacted with trainees regarding their present training and career ambition. During Interaction with Architectural Draughtsman CTS trainees, considering the feedback given by trainees regarding their qualification inclusion in Kerala PSC, He has directed the Principal, NSTI(W) to submit proposal for taking up this with competent authority. During High Tea, he interacted with State level ISC Runner-up Dress Making (DM) CITS Trainee Smt Jeshni Nazeer and conveyed his best wishes for her future endeavours. He was delighted to receive his pencil sketch drawn by Ms. Lakshmi, DM CTS Trainee

Before his departure, he has given his remarks in the Visitor's Book, appreciating the contribution of RDSDE and NSTI(W) in skilling domain, followed with formal photograph.
